

CULTURE & TOURS

Drumcliff - Home of Poet W. B. Yeats

The final resting place of poet W. B. Yeats, set against the dramatic backdrop of Benbulbin.

Carrowmore Megalithic Cemetary.

One of Ireland's largest and oldest prehistoric burial sites, dating back over 5,000 years.

PUBS

Gracie's Bar

24 Grattan St, Sligo

A lively traditional pub known for its welcoming atmosphere and music.

FINE DINING

Eala Bhán

Rockwood Parade, Sligo Town

+353 71 914 5823

A contemporary restaurant focused on simple dishes showcasing the best local, seasonal ingredients.

RESTAURANTS

The Driftwood

Rosses Point Upper, Co Sligo

+353 71 931 7070

A smokehouse restaurant specialising in smoked meats and seafood, with views over Sligo Bay.

Jalan Jalan (Bia Bao)

31 Castle St, Sligo

+353 71 914 4976

A vibrant, Asian-inspired restaurant known for bold flavours and fresh ingredients.

Montmarte

1 Market Yard, Caltragh, Sligo

+353 71 916 9901

A compact French restaurant serving classic dishes, seafood specialities, and an extensive wine list.

Hargadon Bros

4 & 5 O'Connell St, Sligo

+353 71 915 3709

A traditional grocer, wine, and spirit merchant offering quality food and drink for generations.